General Behavior Expectations

While participating in FFA events and travel, managed by the Hatch FFA and New Mexico FFA Association, there are certain behavioral expectations that must be observed by all participants to maintain good standing with FFA and participation in these programs.

All participants in an event or activity sponsored by FFA are prohibited from involvement in unsafe, irresponsible, and/or illegal conduct. You are prohibited from consuming alcoholic beverages. In addition, you must abide by all rules and regulations established by FFA for participation in all FFA Activities.

- a) I promise that my attitude, conduct and appearance will be such to reflect credit on my chapter, school, community and state FFA association.
- b) I promise to abide by the National FFA Code of Ethics.
- c) As a representative of over 1 million FFA members, I will be well-groomed and dress appropriately during all events.
- d) I will not exhibit displays of affection toward another student in public, or in private while representing Hatch FFA. Failure to abide by this rule will result in immediate dismissal from the event and my parent(s)/ guardian(s) will be notified.
- e) I will not use drugs, alcohol, or tobacco at any time during events. I understand if I violate this rule, I will be sent home immediately at my own expense and my parent(s)/guardian(s) will be notified.
- f) I will not damage any hotel property during my participation in events. I will pay for all personal costs and any damage of hotel property directly related to my stay at the hotel before I depart the event. My room will be kept neat and clean.

FFA reserves the right to immediately terminate from the event anyone who is found to have violated these behavioral expectations. Students terminated from the event will be sent home at their own expense and will be responsible for all other expenses associated with their termination.
